

LRNG 190 - Affective Teaching and Learning: Managing, Maximizing, and Leveraging Student Emotional Responses to Controversial Topics in the Classroom

Description

The Affective Teaching and Learning: Managing, Maximizing, and Leveraging Student Emotional Responses to Controversial Topics in the Classroom workshop is designed to address the ups and downs of student emotional responses to controversial topics in the classroom.

Course Offering

Check the Center for Teaching Excellence website for details on when this course is being offered. This course is usually offered in the fall/spring.

Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the Affective Teaching and Learning Managing, Maximizing workshop, participants should be able to:

1. Address the ups and downs of student emotional responses to controversial topics in the classroom
2. Examine the affective component of teaching and learning by discussing the literature on how feelings affect learning and the presenter
3. Share an example from his own teaching experience that attempts to effectively capture, manage, and leverage student emotional responses to increase student engagement, learning, and student buy-in. The specific sample topic to be addressed is 'migration'.

Completion Criteria

In order to receive a micro badge for the course, the following deliverables must be completed:

1. Satisfactory completion of the quizzes in the D2L course shell with a score of 70% or higher.

Microbadge

You can apply for the course badge by visiting the GGC Academic Commons, located at <http://commons.ggc.edu>. Once there, you can click on Badge Library menu item, and locate the LRGN 190 badge using the filters on the left of the page or the actual badge listings.
