

LRNG 192 - Introduction to Integrative Learning

Description

The Introduction to Integrative Learning is designed to be a hands-on experience where faculty members will be introduced to the theory of integrative learning, and what it can mean in the classroom across different disciplines.

Course Offering

Check the Center for Teaching Excellence website for details on when this course is being offered. This course is usually offered in the fall/spring.

Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the Introduction to Integrative Learning workshop, participants should be able to:

1. Describe the process for integrating class and lab for a single discipline
2. Describe strategies for integrating topics across different disciplines during class.
3. Identify pros and cons of the integrative approach.

Completion Criteria

In order to receive a micro badge for the course, the following deliverables must be completed:

1. Satisfactory completion of the quizzes in the D2L course shell with a score of 70% or higher.

Microbadge

You can apply for the course badge by visiting the GGC Academic Commons, located at <http://commons.ggc.edu>. Once there, you can click on Badge Library menu item, and locate the LRGN 192 badge using the filters on the left of the page or the actual badge listings. Once you have located the badge and reviewed the criteria, you can click on the “Apply for Badge” button.

NOTE: Verification and badge application processing time will take 24-48 hours. Once the badge is awarded you can verify receipt by logging into the Academic Commons. Once logged in, you will receive a popup notice indicating a badge has been awarded.

Integrative Learning Track

Completion of this course fulfills the partial requirements for the Integrative Learning Track. For full details on the track requirements, please visit the CTE web site at <http://cte.ggc.edu/integrative-learning>
