

LRNG 192 - The Project-Based Classroom for Integrated Learning

Description

The Project-based Classroom for Integrated Learning workshop is designed to explore the development of the Segue program at GGC, the causes behind the revamping of the presenter's English composition courses, and how to use project-based learning to integrate interdisciplinary perspectives and contemporary concerns for enhanced student learning.

Course Offering

Check the Center for Teaching Excellence website for details on when this course is being offered. This course is usually offered in the fall/spring.

Outcomes

Upon successful completion of The Project-based Classroom for Integrative Learning workshop, participants should be able to:

1. Describe methods about how to include interdisciplinary in all of their courses.

Completion Criteria

In order to receive a micro badge for the course, the following deliverables must be completed:

1. Satisfactory completion of the assignments in the D2L course shell with a score of 70% or higher.

Microbadge

You can apply for the course badge by visiting the GGC Academic Commons, located at <http://commons.ggc.edu>. Once there, you can click on Badge Library menu item, and locate the LRGN 192 badge using the filters on the left of the page or the actual badge listings. Once you have located the badge and reviewed the criteria, you can click on the “Apply for Badge” button.

NOTE: Verification and badge application processing time will take 24-48 hours. Once the badge is awarded you can verify receipt by logging into the Academic Commons. Once logged in, you will receive a popup notice indicating a badge has been awarded.

Integrative Learning Track
