

STNT 120 – Understanding the Whole Student

Description

The Understanding the Whole Student Workshop discusses how to identify and support students with academic, social, and personal issues related to their status as first generation students and/or members of class, ethnically, nationally, gender and/or sexually diverse communities. Participants will explore various resources (on-campus and off) to best assist and address the strengths, needs, and challenges of our students.

Course Offering

Check the Center for Teaching Excellence website for details on when this course is being offered. This course is usually offered in the fall/spring.

Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the Understanding the Whole Student workshop, participants should be able to:

1. Understand the strengths, needs, and challenges of students from underrepresented populations
2. Identify campus and community resources to address challenges and support students and their successful college matriculation
3. Describe campus programs that support students from underrepresented populations
4. Discuss strategies to support academic success, student engagement, and college completion

Completion Criteria

In order to receive a micro badge for the course, the following deliverables must be completed:

1. 2-3 page reflective essay.
 - a. Prompt: Discuss three specific ways you can better support our students, given your position, relationship with our students, and access to resources. What resources and strategies will be most helpful to you in reaching these goals?

Micro badge

You can apply for the course badge by visiting the GGC Academic Commons, located at <http://commons.ggc.edu>. Once there, you can click on Badge Library menu item, and locate the STNT 120 badge using the filters on the left of the page or the actual badge listings. Once you have located the badge and reviewed the criteria, you can click on the “Apply for Badge” button.

NOTE: Verification and badge application processing time will take 24-48 hours. Once the badge is awarded you can verify receipt by logging into the Academic Commons. Once logged in, you will receive a popup notice indicating a badge has been awarded.

Student Success Track

Completion of this course fulfills the partial requirements for the Student Success Track. For full details on the track requirements, please visit the CTE web site at <http://cte.ggc.edu>.
