

STNT 190 – Best Practices in Learning Support and Beyond: Reading and Writing Instruction

Description

The Best Practices in Learning Support: Reading and Writing Instruction workshop will begin with an in-depth discussion of Student Success English courses and assessment practices at GGC. It also will explore different methods of integrating technology (e.g. MyWritingLab, polling software, Twitter) to facilitate learning. Participants will gain a better understanding of effective class strategies and assessments for students who are either in Student Success English courses or who have exited into their college-level writing and writing-intensive courses.

Course Offering

Check the Center for Teaching Excellence for specific dates when this course is offered. Usually offered in fall and spring.

Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the Community Engagement workshop, participants should be able to:

1. Understand the student learning outcomes and assessment measures for Student Success English courses
2. Identify particular instructional challenges for developing readers and writers
3. Identify strategies for addressing the challenges and supporting students in their growth as writers and critical thinkers
4. Brainstorm ways to use technologies and human resources to more powerfully scaffold existing course activities and assessments

Completion Criteria

In order to receive a micro badge for the course, the following deliverables must be completed:

1. Satisfactory completion of reading three pedagogical articles in developmental writing instruction and writing one 2-3 page reflective narrative on how you could shift and/or develop your pedagogical practice to better address the strengths and needs of our students.

Microbadge

You can apply for the course badge by visiting the GGC Academic Commons, located at <http://commons.ggc.edu>. Once there, you can click on Badge Library menu item, and locate the STNT 190 badge using the filters on the left of the page or the actual badge listings. Once you have located the badge and reviewed the criteria, you can click on the “Apply for Badge” button.

NOTE: Verification and badge application processing time will take 24-48 hours. Once the badge is awarded you can verify receipt by logging into the Academic Commons. Once logged in, you will receive a popup notice indicating a badge has been awarded.

Student Success Track

Completion of this course fulfills the partial requirements for the Student Success Track. For full details on the track requirements, please visit the CTE web site at <http://cte.ggc.edu>.
